PETITION TO REVIVE APPLICATION ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY
FOR FAILURE TO REPLY TO A FINAL REJECTION

1. This application became abandoned on April 19, 2003.

NOTE: Extensions under 37 C.F.R. § 1.136 are available only if asked for "prior to or with the response." Accordingly, if the question of abandonment arises when the provisions of § 1.136 can no longer be used, then the the application is abandoned when the unextended time for response expired. Therefore, no extension fees are due on a petition for revival. Thus: An application which is abandoned for failure to respond within a set period with no extension fee having been paid, would not require the payment of extension fees as a condition for revival. M.P.E.P. § 711.03(c), 6th ed., rev. 2.

2. This application became abandoned because the failure to prosecute was an unintentional delay. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date until the filing of this petition was unintentional 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(3).

CERTIFICATION UNDER 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.8(a) and 1.10*
(When using Express Mail, the Express Mail label number is mandatory; Express Mail certification is optional.)

Attachment A

This application went abandoned on April 19, 2003, for failure to respond to a final Office Action mailed November 19, 2002. A response to the Office Action was filed on April 16, 2003, with a two-month extension request but the response was rejected as not putting the application in condition for allowance. A Notice of Abandonment was mailed on June 18, 2003, but was not received because it was mailed to an old address.

Applicants' counsel filed status inquiries on November 19, 2003, and August 17, 2004, but did not receive a response from the Patent Office. See attachments. A copy of the Notice of Abandonment was finally faxed to the office of Applicants' counsel on November 7, 2005, but Applicants' counsel unintentionally failed to file a petition to revive this application. In a review of this file while preparing a status report this week, the undersigned discovered that a petition to revive this application had inadvertently not been filed. This application was unintentionally abandoned and the delay in filing this petition was also unintentional.
